Magen Ba'Aretz is a joint program of Camp Neshet and the Koby Mandell Foundation.

Camp Neshet is a summer program for children entering 3rd - 11th grade, located in Lake Como, PA. Established by the NJ YMHA-YWHA Camps, Camp Neshet offers a nurturing Torah atmosphere, superior recreational programs, and a spirited, Zionist environment.

The Koby Mandell Foundation is an Israel-based organization named after and inspired by 13-year-old Koby Mandell, murdered by terrorists near his home in Israel in 2001. The Foundation creates and operates programs that encourage others struck by terror to live meaningful, healthy and inspired lives.

"I feel sorry for the person who was killed, but I feel sorrier for the people left behind."

Koby Mandell speaking to a classmate at the funeral of an Israeli father of six children murdered by terrorists three months before Koby was murdered.
